

Edmund Pendleton to George Washington, January 10, 1775, Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers. Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM EDMUND PENDLETON, ESQ.

EDMD. PENDLETON Jany. 10th: 1775

DR SIR,

Mr. Valentine Crawford and Mr. John Neavill have given bonds to Mr. Benjamin Temple for £400. for Lands sold them on the Ohio, in which a brother of mine is Interested—the remote Situation of those Gentn. makes it difficult to know how to come at the money, and they think your Connection with that Country, & particularly wth. Mr. Crawford will enable you to serve them in it, as they would be happy in getting the money into your hands. They requested I would write you on the subject, and if it should be in your power to serve them without trouble or inconvenience, I shall esteem it a favr. & shall be glad of a line by Post of its probability.

I hope you found yr. Family well & are by this time recruited so as to make the Assembly Campaign in February. My Compts. to Mrs. Washington, Mr. Custis & his Lady. I am

Sir Yr. mo.hble Servt. EDMD. PENDLETON